CHEF COOKS UP A STORM IN BEIRUT

Food - worldwide - there's been a shift in the culture in how to approach food. Food has become a destination, just like gaming is. Not a collateral to the gaming, Chef Christophe said, with his French accent heavily prevalent "I'm very happy that Merry Go Round, grabbed it and led the way into renovating and adding more options, better options, and a little bit more of a food culture to the dining experience in Lebanon & The Smallville Hotel."
